New York, NY: Random Slices, a group exhibit by members of the New York City Photography Meetup group opens on Friday, June 3rd with the “official” opening reception taking place the next day, Saturday, June 4th from 3:00 to 7:00pm. The show runs through Sunday, June 19th.

Not only is this the first group exhibit for Meetup NY but also the grand opening of The Chrystie Street Gallery. Owner, Hilton Ruiz has been working round the clock reshaping the second floor of a turn-of-the-century building into a modern day fine art gallery. Wide-open spaces and friendly faces greet you upon ascent into the gallery.

Random Slices is a compilation of many different types and stages of photographers from the seasoned professional to the creative newcomer to the world of photography. A mix of traditional and digital photography makes up this show and guarantees the viewer an exciting mix of images in Random Slices.
